

Programs at a Glance

One of East Harlem's largest social service agencies, Union Settlement Association's core services include:

- ❖ Early Childhood Services—500 children
 - Six Childcare/Head Start Centers
 - Family Childcare Network
 - Pediatric Asthma Initiative
- ❖ Youth Services—2,000 youth
 - After-School and Summer Programs for Elementary and Middle School Students
 - Employment and Educational Achievement Program For High School Students
 - College Readiness Program
 - Pre-GED and Workforce Development Program
 - Fatherhood Program
- ❖ Senior Services—1,400 seniors
 - Five Senior Centers
 - Meals on Wheels
 - Senior Transportation Program
 - Senior Volunteer Program
 - Health and Fitness Program
 - Computer Classes
- ❖ Adult Education—1,100 students
 - Basic Education Classes in Spanish and English
 - English for Speakers of Other Languages Classes
 - Civics/Citizenship Classes
 - GED Preparation Classes in English, Spanish and French
 - Immigration/Educational Counseling
 - Writing through Reading Program (with the 92nd Street Y)
 - Home Health Aide Training Program
- ❖ Mental Health Services—600 children and adults
 - Johnson Counseling Center
 - Children's Blended Case Management
 - Geriatric Mental Health Services
 - HIV Counseling Program
- ❖ HIV/AIDS Services
 - Manhattan HIV Care Network (a consortium of 25 agencies)

Two separately incorporated organizations complement our services:

- ❖ Union Settlement Federal Credit Union—3,800 members
 - Low-Cost Checking and Savings Accounts
 - Business, Educational, Home and Personal Loans
 - Financial Counseling
 - Financial Literacy Workshops
 - Free Tax Preparation Assistance
- ❖ Union Settlement Home Care—275 clients, 300 home attendants
 - Home Care and Personal Care Services
 - Assistance with Daily Living (cooking, shopping, etc.)

Across our programs, staff and participants work together to bring change to their lives and to their community.