Union Settlement Receives $15,000 Donation from Crum & Forster in Support of Early Childhood Development and Educational Programs

East Harlem, NY – Union Settlement (www.unionsettlement.org), East Harlem’s oldest and largest social service provider, today announced it received a charitable donation of $15,000 from Crum & Forster, a leading provider of property & casualty, accident & health and specialty insurance solutions, in support of Union Settlement’s early childhood development and education programs as well as other growth initiatives.

Crum & Forster is supporting selected non-for-profit organizations in celebration of its 200th year Anniversary and identified Union Settlement for its unwavering commitment and dedication to serving the communities, families and residents of East Harlem. The unrestricted donation will be used to support early childhood education and childcare, a cornerstone of Union Settlement’s essential services to support East Harlem families and children.

“We are grateful to receive a generous and unrestricted contribution from Crum & Forster to grow Union Settlement’s critical early childhood education programs,” said Derrick Boone, Interim Chief Executive Officer at Union Settlement. “Support from partners like Crum & Forster is essential for Union Settlement to support working families and children in accessing greater opportunities for success and growth.”

“Crum & Forster is proud to help create positive change for East Harlem through this donation to Union Settlement. From pre-natal care to early childhood education and senior services, Union Settlement has consistently delivered exceptional care and support for East Harlem and its residents for decades,” said Ranjini Pillay, senior vice president of Crum & Forster’s Credit Division. “Union Settlement has become an advocate for many families and individuals: immigrants, minorities and the underserved, offering a chance of a better life for their family and loved ones.”
